One of our Featured Speakers, Bill Weiss, will be leading this Pre-Conference Workshop.

Billie will discuss the keys to success in shooting all aspects of sports photography, including game action, sports features, sports portraiture, and lighting. He will offer tips and tricks for capturing moving subjects, and discuss the mentality and mindset involved with making a great sport photograph, as well as ways to market yourself and your photography business. You will see examples of bold, vibrant, iconic imagery from his role as the Director of Photography for the Boston Red Sox, as well as from other sports venues and events throughout the world. We will leave plenty of time for a question and answer session in hopes of having a great discussion and dialogue surrounding ways to improve your technical skills with motion and sports photography.

This is a unique class not to be missed!
