Keeping your photos organized is critical for making sure you can later find a particular photo you're looking for. But with so many different features related to organizing photos in Lightroom Classic, you may have gotten a little overwhelmed or developed a cumbersome workflow. During this presentation Tim Grey will share his expertise in Lightroom Classic, providing tips to help you define a streamlined workflow to keep your photos organized. You'll learn tricks for making sure you don't forget to review new photos, get recommendations for defining favorite photos versus outtakes, learn quick ways to assign keywords to photos, and much more. The result will be a streamlined workflow that enables you to find your photos fast.
