Planning can make a tremendous difference in photography, and in this presentation, you'll learn how to make the most of the powerful PhotoPills app (found on mobile devices) to get better DSLR/mirrorless camera photos. Tim will demonstrate some of the basics of the App such as calculating exposure settings and depth of field. Learn how the Planner in PhotoPills can be used to plan a variety of details for a photo shoot, including how to include the sun or moon alongside a specific subject in a scene. You'll be amazed at the powerful planning features of PhotoPills, and Tim will help you understand how to put these incredible features to use in your photography.
