About Kate Silvia

Kate Silvia (SC) is a professional landscape photographer based in Charleston, South Carolina. Her intense passion for the natural world is matched only by the desire to share that passion with her students. Kate is a natural teacher and is often requested to speak at camera clubs and photo organizations in the Southeastern U.S.

Her images and articles can be seen in numerous publications, including Landscape Photographer, Nature Photographers Network, Aquarium Fish, Nature Photographer, Camera In The Wild, and NANPA's Expressions. She maintains an educational blog with tips for aspiring photographers as well as a YouTube Channel with photo editing tutorials. She is the author of the E-Books, "Composition For The Landscape Photographer" and "The Nature Photographer's Guide to Greater Charleston."

Kate has created downloadable video workshops for NIK Software. She leads field and classroom workshops throughout the year and is also available for individual tutoring in the Charleston area. Kate is a regular contributor to Visual Wilderness, an on-line landscape photography resource. She writes for their blog and produces full-length educational videos for all aspects of landscape photography. It's all about helping others become better photographers.
