74rd ANNUAL NECCC CONFERENCE

Keynote Speaker

Kristi Odom

"THE POWER AND PASSION OF PHOTOGRAPHY"

Sponsored by Nikon

As story collectors, sometimes we become the story: How we got the shot, the journey, our passions, and even close calls with life itself. In her NECCC Keynote Presentation, "The Power and Passion of Photography," Nikon Ambassador Kristi Odom will take you diving with whale sharks, head to head with charging grizzly bears, up close with spiders, and

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

By Daniel Charbonnet, HonPSA, EPSA, MNEC, President

The sun is occasionally out, trees are blossoming, pollen is filling the air and clogging our sinuses BUT there is no snow, no freezing weather and there is the promise of summer, even though it may be a wet one.

I hope you have marked your calendars for July 12, 13, 13 for our 74th Conference held at University of Massachusetts Amherst. It is a great weekend for connecting with friends that you haven't seen since last July, making new friends, bringing ideas back to your club for different photo techniques that you can share throughout the year. You can also build your portfolio with new ideas for landscapes (wet and dry), night photography and photographing children. As you travel you can use your iPhone in many different ways to get exceptional creative photographs. Perfect your digital prowess with a greater knowledge of sharpening, plug-ins, textures and Lightroom. We have it all and more. You will even have the chance to photograph raptors again this year. Visit with the many top companies who are lending lenses and cameras for you to try. Don't forget to bring your credit card to shop in our vendor area. Our vendors are all set to help you purchase top of the line photography items. Just log in to our website www.neccc.org and register for the conference and see the tentative schedule. If you register before June 21st you get the early bird special price. After the 22nd there is a $40 increase. Join the fun and save some money! You say you cannot make the entire weekend. Not to worry. We also have rates for one day only and for Saturday and Sunday only.

You will notice some changes to the schedule that reflect suggestions made by previous attendees and continued construction on campus. First, due to construction we will unfortunately not have our usual Sunday morning event. Also due to construction our print display and competition will be held in the picturesque chapel building instead of in the Student Union.

I would like to welcome a new board member, Chane Cullens. Chane is our new Conference Webmaster and his endeavors in that area are readily apparent on the NECCC website.

The NECCC is always supportive of its member clubs and their membership. Share with me the triumphs your club has had, your concerns about your club and any ideas you have to share with the NECCC Board. Your input is needed and is valuable. Let me know how NECCC can support your club! ddrc3@msn.com

My second year as President has continued to be an eventful learning experience. I would like to thank the NECCC Board members for their support and give special thanks to Susan Mosser and my predecessor, Antoinette Gombeda for their help and mentoring.

hanging from ropes, all in a quest to capture the beauty in a fraction of a second. Get ready for a night of the action behind capturing her iconic award-winning images.

As an internationally acclaimed photographer and sought-after motivational speaker, Kristi travels the world shooting, teaching and sharing her insights so she can help make our planet a better, more loving place. When she was 16 years old, she picked up her grandfather's camera and fell in love with the beauty of the natural world. Ever since then, she has been driven to capture what's real, raw, and compelling about the people and animals she photographs. Kristi now makes her home in Washington DC, but from destination weddings in Thailand to conservation projects in the jungles of Borneo she is always on the move, and always ready to connect with others through her love for photography and Mother Earth.

Kristi's first assignments centered around shooting musicians, and the more she shot, the more she focused on emotional moments. Over the years, those emotional moments have become the photographs that define her style. Whether she's documenting a couple in love, or a spider monkey mourning the loss of her mother, her compassion for her subjects shines through and is fundamental to her work.

With presentations created for Nikon, WPPI (Wedding and Portrait Photographers International), Fearless, and the Georgia Institute of Technology among others, Kristi teaches photographers to focus on improving their work through creating an emotional connection and to give back through personal projects. Her accolades include a Master's accreditation from WPPI, and she has won over 60 international photography awards including 2 Nature's Best Photography awards and 26 Fearless awards. Her recent work has been exhibited twice at the Smithsonian Museum of Natural History. You can learn more about Kristi and her images at www.kristiodomfineart.com

NEW ENGLAND CAMERA CLUB COUNCIL CONFERENCE
74th CONFERENCE JULY 12, 13, 14, 2019
LEARN IT! SHOOT IT! EDIT IT!

Time to register– the NECCC Conference is only five weeks away! We still have AC dorm accommodations available at this time.

The online registration link is:

<https://umass.irisregistration.com/Site/NECCC> Register early to take advantage of the workshops, pre-conference and conference, photo walks, ac dorms ect., many which are limited in space.

This three-day conference is a great weekend full of learning and fun and is filled with lots of hands-on opportunities for taking photos and then editing them to create your own works of art.

The keynote speaker for Saturday night is Kristi Odom who will present, "The Power and Passion of Photography." Sponsored by Nikon, Kristi is a Nikon Ambassador and an internationally acclaimed photographer and sought-after motivational speaker. She travels the world shooting, teaching and sharing her insights so she can help make our planet a better place. Her compassion for her subjects shines through and is fundamental to her work. Kristi now makes her home in Washington DC, but from destination weddings in Thailand to conservation projects in the jungles of Borneo she is always on the move, and always ready to connect with others through her love for photography and Mother Earth. Her accolades include a Master's accreditation from WPPI (Wedding and Portrait Photographers International), and she has won over 60 international photography awards including 2 Nature's Best Photography awards and 26 Fearless awards. Her recent work has been exhibited twice at the Smithsonian Museum of Natural History.

The Photo Ops selections will continue to have innovative subject matter for your photographic endeavors with lots of extras including Macro Photographing of Insects – Kathy Macpherson Baca Sponsored by Sigma, Photographing Raptors – David Akoubian Sponsored by Tamron with Birds Sponsored by Wingmasters, Special Character Models – Marc Farb Sponsored by Sigma, Food & Still Life – Gerri Jones, Still Life – Mark Battista, Floral Portraits – Padma Inguva, and Photographing Flowers – Anne Belmont, Sponsored by Lensbaby. The Photo Ops room will also have many other Still Life setups with smoke and glass for additional opportunities. Female models will be available both inside and outdoors on Saturday and Sunday morning as well.

On Sunday morning, various speakers will be leading Photo Walks and many will be theme based. There is no charge when you sign-up in the registration system by June 21. Register early to get your favorite!

There will be vendors and photo equipment to borrow from Fujifilm, Lensbaby, Nikon, Olympus, Panasonic Lumix, Sigma, Sony and Tamron. Hunt's Photo and Video will open 2 hours early on Friday with great bargains and early bird specials! (Hunt's Photo and Video will open Friday at 10:00 am, other vendor's opening times may vary.) Come early to shop and see what they have to offer.

Also, bring some of your old camera equipment to possibly trade in on something new!

There will be thirteen Friday morning pre-conference workshops for your selection this year. Sign up now as many of the classes have limited seating. Hands-on pre-conference workshops include Portrait Lighting, Birds of Prey, Horses, Butterflies, Flowers, Macro, Post-processing and more! Our keynote speaker, Kristi Odem is also offering a pre-conference workshop this year on "Advanced Camera Techniques & Tips to Win Awards." Other classes over the weekend will be offered in Nature, Landscapes, Creativity, Mobile Phone Captures, Still Life, Time-lapse, Travel Photography, Night Photography, Street Photography and so much more! In addition to having NECCC Affiliated Photographers available to critique your images, you may also have some of our conference presenters critique your images too! Hope to see you all there!!! You may find the pre-conference workshops here: <http://necccphotoconference.org/category/sessions/pre-conference> The conference schedule may be found here: <http://necccphotoconference.org/schedule>

2019 Conference Dedication

Art Vaughan, HonNEC

It is with gratitude and great pride that the New England Camera Club Council (NECCC) dedicates the 74th Annual Conference to Art Vaughan, HonNEC, of North Andover, Massachusetts, in recognition of his active and considerable support and service to NECCC, its member clubs, and to many local, regional, and national photographic organizations.

Art's service to the New England Camera Club Council and to the New England photographic community is impressive in quality and quantity. He is always willing to travel near and far to share his considerable knowledge and photographic experience, especially in the field of macro photography. He has been a member of the Board of the New England Camera Club Council for thirteen years, where he has served as the NECCC Print Competition Director and also the Print Director of the NECCC Conference Print Competitions. In 2016 he was awarded with the title of Honorary Member of NECCC (HonNEC).

Art is a 34 year member of the Merrimack Valley Camera Club, where he held the position of President for nine years, and Print Competition Chair for sixteen years. He is also a member of the Photographic Society of America (PSA), a member of the Massachusetts Camera Naturalists (CamNats), an invitation nature only photographic organization dedicated to nature photography and the advancement and teaching of nature and the environment, and a member of the Photographic Historical Society of New England.

He has judged over 120 photographic competitions both prints and projected images at local and regional camera clubs throughout New England and New York, NECCC and PSA interclub competitions, and International Photographic Exhibitions sponsored by the Photographic Society of America (PSA). Art has presented his instructional program "Pop Up Flash Macro Photography" over forty times at various New England camera clubs and was a featured speaker at the PSA International Conference in San Antonio, Texas in 2016.

His most amazing service to the New England photographic community is his presentation of the "Best of the NECCC Prints" doing this as a "live" presentation over eighty times in the last sixteen years. Art personally transports the prints, traveling near and far to various camera clubs throughout New England to show and critique the prize-winning prints of the previous camera club year "in person". In addition to these most impressive accomplishments, Art is an expert in photomicrography, macro photography, stereo imaging, anamorphic photography, digital restoration of antique images and an expert in color and B&W printmaking. He is an excellent teacher in all of these fields who is always willing to share his talent and experience. Art is a tireless worker with remarkable attention to detail who has made many significant and long-lasting contributions to the photographic community. We, and the New England photographic community, are extremely grateful for his many years of excellent service.

Please stop by the special display area on the Main Concourse of the Campus Center near the bookstore to view his spectacular photography and sign his dedication book with a congratulatory note.

2019- 74th NECCC Conference

NECCC has created a new website dedicated to the NECCC Photography Conference at <http://NECCCPhotoConference.org> The site is up and running now. Check it out!

From the home page, quickly search and access all the conference information without opening any PDFs. Scroll down to use the powerful interactive search table. You will see similar tables on most pages. For example, on a speaker's page, after the bio and photos, you will see a table with all of that speaker's events.

How to use an interactive search table:

- Click links in the Title column --> to view the event details
- Click links in the Categories and Tags columns --> to view a specific list of events
- Or, use the interactive Search box (not supported by Internet Explorer, instead use Google Chrome, Firefox, Safari, Edge ...)
 - Enter Jim - see all of Jim's events
 - Enter Fri - find the events on Friday
 - Enter Fri 8:30 - find the events on Friday that start at 8:30
 - Enter Creativity - find all events that include Creativity
 - Enter Hands - find all Hands-On events - often you just need a few letters
 - Enter Lightroom - you get the idea

Note: specific dates, times and locations for most sessions appear in May.

Visit <http://NECCCPhotoConference.org> to learn about this year's 90+ Teaching Programs - 30 Workshops, 13 Photo Walks, 50 Hands-On events ...

General Fund Donations

Donations to the NECCC GENERAL OPERATING FUND help defray the operating expenses of the Council, including the cost of services provided to member clubs and the expense of the Annual Conference at Amherst. Donations are also used to purchase much needed new equipment for the conference.

When donating to the General Operating Fund, checks should be made payable to "NECCC" and should be sent to:

Susan Mosser HonPSA, HonNEC
173 Central St
No. Reading, Ma 01864
s.jmosser@comcast.net

Since our last issue of the NECCC Bulletin no donations have been received.

All contributions are tax deductible and will receive a written acknowledgement.

Susan Mosser, HonPSA, HonNEC
General Fund Chairman

Memorial Scholarship Fund

A donation to the NECCC Memorial Scholarship Fund in the memory of a beloved family member or friend who enjoyed the craft and art of photography is a fitting tribute to that person in that your gift will help to perpetuate their love of photography in a young student who is undertaking a photographic curriculum at an accredited school of higher learning by endowing that student with a scholarship to assist them in their academic quest.

There are no new donations to report since last issue of the NECCC Bulletin

A couple of reminders:

- When making a memorial donation, please include the name and address of the person's family so that a notification of the gift can be sent to them.
- All donations to the NECCC Memorial Scholarship Fund are fully tax deductible to the extent of the law.

Checks should be made out to: NECCC Memorial Fund. Please mail to:

Speakers & Judges Lists Daniel Charbonnet, HonPSA, EPSA, MNEC

A reminder that the NECCC Speakers and Judges Lists are available online on the NECCC website. You can select from the link in the left column of the home page, or through the Club Services Packet tab. Speakers are invited to submit detailed program descriptions that will be linked to their listing. This will allow a club who is looking for a specific program to know the details of what will be presented. If a speaker's name is highlighted in blue, then there is a link to program descriptions. If you are a speaker and would like to send me your information, please email to ddrc3@msn.com. If you know of someone who is a speaker, feel free to invite them to contact me to be added to our list (the application form is also on the website). In addition, if you – or someone you know – is an experienced camera club judge and would like to be added to our Judges List, you may also email me at the address above.

In Memoriam
George Nieske, FPSA, MNEC

Former New England Camera Club Council Vice President on the Board of Directors, George Nieske, FPSA, MNEC passed away on May 25th at the age of 88. George had been on the NECCC BOD for over 25 years. He worked on a number of committees and held several positions during his tenure, including working Co-Chairman of Photo-Ops (or Hi Jinks as it was previously known) for several years with Abe Riesman, HonNEC. He resigned from the Board some years ago to enjoy his retirement.

At the conference, George was always willing to help out however he could and always did a number of program introductions over the weekend when he wasn't working on something else.

He was also a willing helper at the Yankee Photographic Society one day conferences again working in Photo Ops or leading the set ups for the day. A nature lover and photographer he loved to shoot macro and had a huge trunk of pieces of old wood to use with the nature insect set ups in the ops rooms. NECCC still has that trunk and the wood to this day and still makes use of it at our annual conferences.

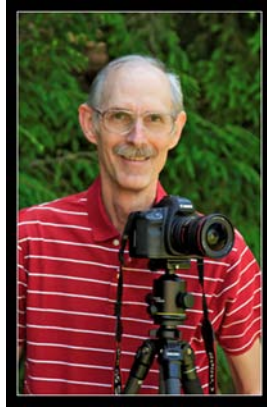

For his continued service to the council and the New England photographic community, he was awarded his Master (MNEC) by NECCC over 25 years ago. For his service to Photography on the National level he was awarded his APSA – Associate in 1979 and his FPSA-Fellow in 1989 by PSA.

He was a member of the Photographic Society of America (PSA), Springfield Photographic Society, and the Massachusetts Camera Naturalists (CamNats), an invitation only Nature group.

His friendship and service will be sorely missed by those who knew him and admired his dedication to photography. He always had a smile on his face and his good humor was known to all.

Susan Mosser, HonPSA, HonNEC

In Memoriam
Joe LeFevre

It is with deep sorrow that we relay the news of API instructor Joe LeFevre's passing, on Thursday, January 10th. Joe was a beloved and gifted photographer, consummate teacher, public speaker, and our great friend. He was a devoted family man and a man of great faith. We will miss him dearly. Joe is survived by his immediate family, wife Linda, sons Robert and David, and daughter Joanna. We offer them our continued love and prayers.

As a photographer, Joe was renowned for his compositional skills, and for readily incorporating cutting-edge digital technologies in his imagery. He had a special affinity for creating panoramas, and shooting time-lapse sequences and video. He created instructional DVD's on numerous photographic topics and a DVD showcasing the Adirondacks.

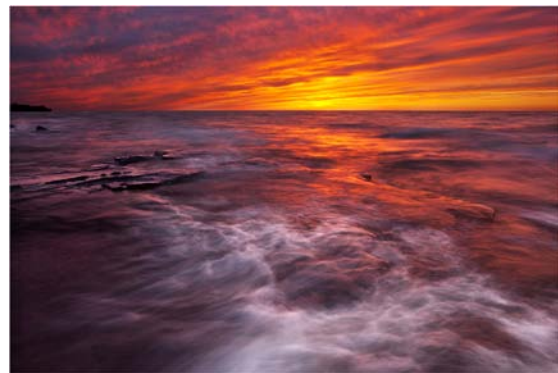

Joe also cherished sharing his love and knowledge of nature photography through workshops. We know he felt blessed by the many friendships he made through them, and the wonderful experiences shared. To all those he touched, our sincere condolences. One aspect of his enduring legacy will be that he not only made us better photographers, but better people.

We love you Joe.

By Pamela Ruby Russell Stonybrook Camera Club

It is with a great sense of loss and also gratitude that I say goodbye to dear Joe LeFevre! I just heard of his passing and am taking the liberty to extend my deepest condolences to his beloved family and dear friends of whom there are many. Joe and I only met a few times, at camera club events. But our conversations were profound and meaningful. I always came away feeling listened to and respected! ...one of Joe's many gifts. Sadly, I sorely regret not joining in on one of his adventures... as a photographer who seeks out beauty, I could not have asked for a more perfect guide! Now I will have to always ask, "Is this where Joe would have led me?" For certain, Joe LeFevre, the artist and the man, created and shared his own Heaven on Earth for us all to view, in joy and wonder!!! Now Joe resides among the shooting stars and brilliant skies he so lovingly captured for us to dream on.... Joe, you are one of my Heroes, my mentors and I will always remember you! Rest In Peace... Thank you. Venture on...Into the Blue. Below is a small gallery of Joe's work. To see more, go to: www.joelefvrephoto.com

2019 NECCC REPRESENTATIVE INFORMATION

Congratulations Olive Weingart

Olive M. Weingart

At our annual Camera Club Representatives Breakfast to be held on Saturday morning July 13, the Council normally honors NECCC Representatives with service certificates for years of continuous service in five year increments. There are no representatives currently at these plateaus for 2019.

However the Council has been notified that Olive M. Weingart, APSA, HonNEC, the representative for the Charter Oak Photographic Society, CT will be retiring from that position after thirty –three years of service to her club and NECCC. A tireless worker, Olive has also been the past conference chairman with Audrey Weigold and was the speaker/worker conference registration chair for over fifteen years. She has been her clubs representative since 1986. There are only two other reps with longer service. We will be honoring Ollie with a certificate of service at the breakfast. With many thanks to Olive for her dedication.

Camera Club Representatives are the communication link between the Council and the Clubs and are a vital part of the New England photographic community.

2019 NECCC SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

We welcome one returning NECCC Scholarship Award recipient and three first-time recipients. Their dedication to learning the craft of photography is exemplary. We congratulate them on their achievements and wish them continued success. They are the future of photography. Over the years, we have had the pleasure and privilege to assist many fine young students in their pursuit of a career in photography.

Riley Halliday is a returning recipient of an NECCC Scholarship Award. She is attending the Massachusetts College of Art and Design with an anticipated graduation date of 2021. Riley is sponsored by the Stony Brook Camera Club of Franklin, Massachusetts. In addition to the NECCC Scholarship Award, and the Jane Sibley Memorial Award, Riley is receiving a scholarship from the Greater Lynn Photographic Association and a gift certificate from Gary Farber and Hunts Photo and Video.

Sarah Farkas is a first time recipient of an NECCC Scholarship Award. She is attending the New England School of Photography and is sponsored by the Greater Bridgeport Camera Club. In addition to the NECCC Scholarship Award, Sarah is receiving the Charles W. Wyckoff Memorial Scholarship and a gift certificate from Gary Farber and Hunts Photo and Video.

Ravneet Marwaha is a first time recipient of an NECCC Scholarship Award. She is attending the New England School of Photography with an anticipated completion date of 2020 and is sponsored by the Greater Lynn Photographic Association. In addition to the NECCC Scholarship Award, Ravneet is receiving the Charles W. Wyckoff Memorial Scholarship, a Greater Lynn Photographic Association Scholarship and a gift certificate from Gary Farber and Hunts Photo and Video.

Christina McCafferty is a first time recipient of an NECCC Scholarship Award. She is attending the New England School of Photography with a completion date of 2020 and is sponsored by the Connecticut Association of Photographers. In addition to the NECCC Scholarship Award, Sarah is receiving a gift certificate from Gary Farber and Hunts Photo and Video.

We are grateful for the many donations to the scholarship fund by individuals and by camera clubs. Lois Clarke, Roslyn MacNish, and Jane Sibley were long time NECCC Board members and excellent photographers who knew how important an education was and established their scholarships. David Stone, President of Photosol, Inc established the Charles W. Wyckoff Memorial Scholarship in memory of his friend who was a significant contributor to the field of photography. Charlie loved to talk photography with an enthusiasm which was contagious. The Greater Lynn Photographic Association is generously sponsoring two scholarships this year. We thank them for their continued support. Gary Farber understands the need to help young people succeed in their future goals and offset the high cost of higher education. It is generous acts such as these that can ultimately make the difference in another person's life.

Creating Impactful Images

By Michael Goodman, MNEC

1.0 Why Compete?

When I first started competing I was fairly confident that I was already a good photographer. It didn't take many competitions that first year to realize I had so much to learn. I was happy just to get a ribbon or two in the beginners class. When I saw the masters class my eyes popped out. Seeing those images made me realize not only what was possible but also what was possible for me to achieve and how to get there thanks to the critical comments from the judges. The competitions inspired and challenged me. I remember thinking - I want to take pictures like that. I have been competing in clubs nonstop ever since.

While it's fun to get the ribbons (especially the blue ones), it was for me and for most of my fellow club members not really about the ribbons or "winning". It was to learn and get feedback from someone who could help me get "better" and to see things differently. My most formidable competitor was not my peers but myself. Could I challenge myself to improve and get "unstuck" from bad habits and patterns of thinking...like one of the first "ash hahs" I had "You mean it's generally better to take people portraits vertically than horizontally?"

What I have come to realize more recently is that competitions are really a place to share with people who have a deep interest in photography as a serious art form what they are learning, what they are excited about and what they are discovering or experimenting with. We all benefit from that because it generates all sorts of new ideas and possibilities. When I first started competing, I mainly only did travel photography. Today while I continue to love travel I do landscape, sports, underwater and lots of wildlife photography that I wouldn't have even dreamed of twenty years ago. And I got good at these by trying things out that I learned at the club and getting feedback from competing. All due to my participation in the clubs and club competitions. I Learned a Lot by Actively Competing

2.0 Reflections on Judges and Judging

One thing you can count on is that judges will not always be consistent. Judges like all of us have biases that sometimes can be quite strong. There is a large subjective component to judging even if we wish that weren't true. But the best judges in my humble experience are able to keep their biases in check and can appreciate a given image on its own terms. They appreciate the challenges of the full range of photographic subject matter and are accomplished themselves in multiple areas such as studio, sports, travel, architecture, landscape, macro, photo journalism and maker suggestions or insights that can be of service. They are focused on how the image could be improved from their perspective. They are teachers more than just judges.

Having 8-10 competitions with all different judges over the year is one important way subjectivity (bias) in judging is mitigated or "balanced" out. This is one reason why beginners need to "stick" with it over the season and not get discouraged by the judging from just one or two competitions. When there are three (or more judges) then judging biases can be even better balanced out. This is why opportunities to participate in juried competitions or international salons are so important and should be a priority. You are getting feedback from a group of "experts" not just one.

Speaking as a judge - something I love doing - I have to tell you that by far the most difficult part of judging for me at least is when judging a club's advanced/master classes. Here there will be few if any technical issues with the images so pretty much I am left with trying to sort out the best among the best. How do you do that? Now it is almost entirely subjective based on how the subject matter, the treatment or perspective appeals to me. More on this later.

What is Your Intent When You Enter Competitions?

I believe there are a variety of different personal motivations when we enter competitions that ranges from just being curious to being quite serious. This is how I would characterize people along that continuum:

- I'm curious to see how the judge will respond to my image(s)
- I really want to get some feedback from an expert so I can get better
- I'm really excited about this image and want to see what the judge as well as other club members think about it
- I think I have a winner on my hands - let's see what the judge has to say.

As a judge and competitor I think all these motivations are legitimate.

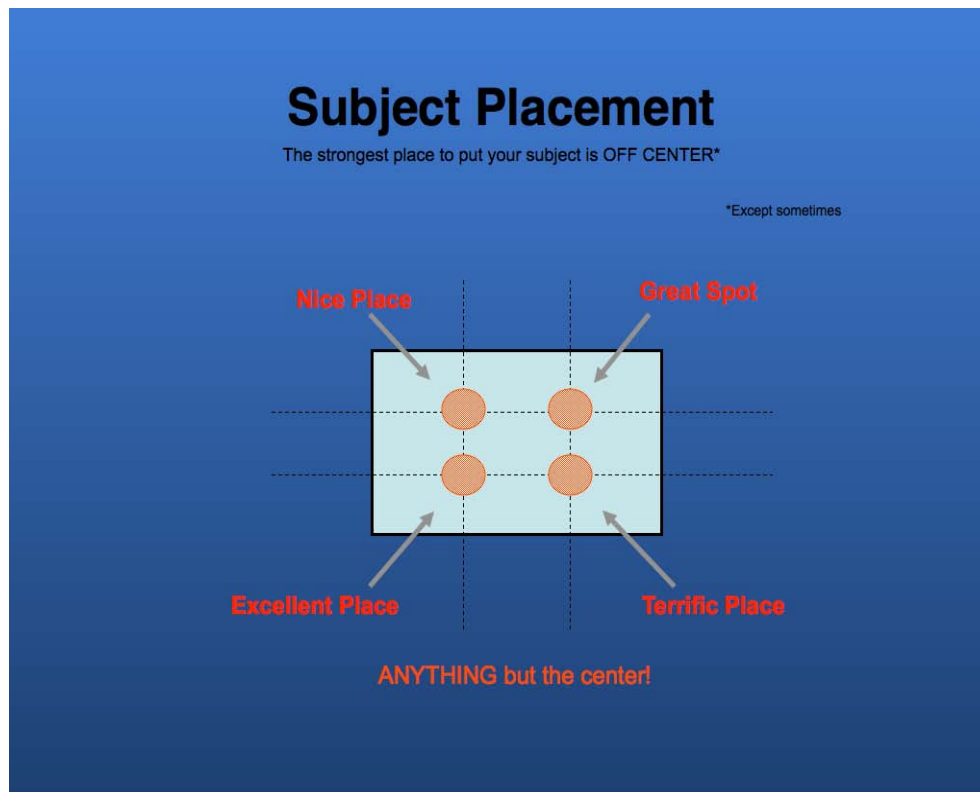

3.0 Composition

When I think about composition I consider these elements:

- Center of interest - Is there a clear center of interest?
- Subject placement - Where is the main subject placed?
- Cropping - Have distracting elements been eliminated as much as possible?
- Depth - Does the image convey a sense of depth?

When I think about composition I ask myself what is it exactly that captures my interest? What do I want my viewer to particularly focus on in this image? The answer should be simple, obvious and clear to YOUR VIEWER (i.e. the judge) even though it might be obvious to you when they see your image. No explanation or commentary should be required. The image should contain the full story.

Subject placement can make or break the impact from composition. The strongest place to put your subject generally is OFF CENTER. There are exceptions to this of course but thinking off center when you're capturing or

Stay Away from the Center

Photographic images are two dimensional but the world we inhabit is three dimensional. How do we create that third dimension in our photographs? Probably the best way is to consider how to use diagonals in your image to lead the reader to your main subject. This technique focuses on the use of leading lines. Leading lines create dynamics in an image. Below are the classic leading line.

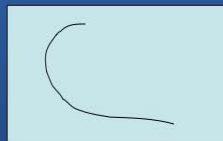

Creating Depth in Images

Select images with leading lines or leading curves (or the illusion) especially if they are diagonal

This adds dynamics or a sense of depth to the composition

Diagonal

C curve

S curve

Leading Lines Have Impact

Use Lines to Create Depth

4.0 Lighting

When I consider lighting I am focusing on the quality of lighting (e.g. soft, warm, harsh, mixed), the type of lighting (e.g. side lit, backlit) and how dynamic (e.g. dramatic) the lighting is.

Here are some of my lighting watch outs:

Lighting Watch Outs

Some kinds of lighting are much better than others for creating IMPACT.

- ✓ Avoid images with distracting elements (e.g. bright objects, busy foregrounds with highlights, etc)
- ✓ Pick images where the lighting enhances the image. Often this means early morning or late afternoon light.
- ✓ Avoid or at least minimize mixed lighting (a.k.a. high contrast where there are deep shadows & strong sunlight).
- ✓ Strong sunlight (contrasty lighting) is not usually the best for portraits of any kind.

Lighting Makes a Real Difference

Dramatic Lighting Adds Points

5.0 Approach

We all approach subjects differently. In some cases the wide angle shot may be more effective than the tight telephoto of a given subject. What I am looking for here in both my own and other's images is their perspective (very wide angle vs. normal; shot low to the ground or from some height). How unusual is their approach? This is where framing can come into play. I'm looking for a unique perspective.

For me a very critical dimension of approach has to do with how well the image maker has controlled not only what's included but mostly what has been excluded. Photography unlike its sister arts such as painting and drawing is a subtractive process. This means that the skill required is in cleverly figuring out how to minimize all distracting elements and isolate the subject. The challenge is to bring coherence, order and harmony to what's contained within the image frame out of the chaos and fragmentation of the real world. Our tendency is to include way more than is needed in our photographs. I am a strong minimalist in this area - less is always better. Isolate, isolate, isolate!

Less Often Generates Higher Impact

6.0 Subject Matter

Finally we are at the last of the impact components and for me perhaps one of the most critical to ultimately determining impact and score. What the subject is does matter. (Maybe I should rename this Subject Matters.) As I look at my own images or judging at the competition I am asking myself is this a particularly inviting or interesting subject? Is the subject of the image commonplace or is it something more extra-ordinary? Do I want to see more? How long could I keep looking at the image and not lose interest? Is there a whole story here that I want to know more about? Am I thinking wow? Is this an image I wish I had made? Maybe it's about the moment in time that has been captured that we don't see often or sometimes can't see at all because it happens in the blink of an eye. Timing does play a big role when it comes to making subject matter special. Judges can be more forgiving about some of the other impact elements if you have caught or done a reasonable job try to catch something that is exceptional.

Timing Makes the Difference

Unusual Subject Matter Helps a Lot

7.0 Post-Processing to Bring Out the Best

Back in the day of yellow Kodak and green Fuji boxes, once the shutter was released you were pretty much done. In the digital era pressing the release is often just the beginning. Now we can do things with our images that were unimaginable just 10 or even 5 years ago. In fact our cameras can now even see in the dark and track movements with focus accuracy impossible just a few years ago. The range of possibilities with digital photography boggles the mind. I am taking pictures in conditions not possible with film or even digi-cameras a few years ago. I don't blink taking an image at ISO 5000 now. Amazing for us old-timers.

But while the cameras and software are getting smarter and smarter, there is still need to do some image "development" to bring out all the details and richness in our captures and take advantage of all that data that you captured in those images. Post-processing is a critical tool to making great images and putting more points on your impact scoreboard. Images right of the camera especially in Raw need some work and tuning. For me this means

- Bringing out the details in the shadows
- Reducing or controlling the highlights
- Getting the color balance right
- Cropping
- Reducing noise as necessary
- Sharpening as little as needed
- Eliminating any sensor dust or artifacts
- Making the colors "pop" a bit more as needed
- Healing any "wounds" or removing distractions (not allowed with nature shots) as needed

Ninety percent of my post-processing is done with Lightroom (LR). I go right down the LR Develop panel (upper right). Typically I start with cropping then do my white balance, adjust my whites, shadows and highlights. Add some presence and a touch of vibrance. That's pretty much it other than sharpening, noise and re-sizing for competition which I do in Photoshop.

Photographic Society of America
81st Annual Conference of Photography-2019
Spokane, Washington

The Photographic Society of America offers an exciting lineup of photo tours, workshops, programs, presenters, and vendors at their 81st Annual International Conference. This year's conference will take place in Spokane, Washington. The dates are one week earlier this year Sunday September 22, through Saturday, September 28, 2019 and actually list the conference as starting Wednesday September 25th with Photo Tours Sunday the 22nd through Tuesday the 24th.

As usual they have excellent pre conference tours as well as top of the line speakers. Wednesday starts more intense programming with many sponsored speakers and hands-on workshops as well as showing of all the international exhibitions sponsored by PSA. If you wish to enter these exhibitions they all have deadline dates of mid August.

You can find more detailed information on the conference as well as an online registration form and hotel information at www.psa-photo.org, click on Conference at the top of the page, then 2019 conference. Online registration has been opened for over a month for the conference and hotel.

Photographic Society of America
PSA International Exhibition Information

The closing date for entries for all exhibitions is Monday July 8, 2019. This is one month earlier than usual. Most of the division exhibitions have two sections. See the rules under the division you are interested in for the category sections. The entry fee is inexpensive at $8 for one section and $10 for two sections in all divisions. In 3D it is even cheaper $5 and $7.

Entry forms and information for all of the PSA exhibitions can be found at <https://psa-photo.org/psa-international>. Scroll down to the section you wish to enter and read the rules. The various sections are being judged all over the USA in most cases on the same weekend-July 13 & 14, 2019. Nature digital is being judged in England. All print divisions will be judged in OK this year by a variety of judges for the different sections. Along with the nature section, PSA also offers other sections such as Projected Image or Open (judged in AZ), Photo Travel (judged in MD), Photo Journalism (judged in OK,). They accept prints in PT, PJ, Nature and Open which has 4 sections Large Color and Large Monochrome and Small Color and Small Monochrome. If you are into doing 3D they also accept slides (judged in VA).

You can get the information and entry forms to all sections on the same page, just scroll up and down. All entries can be made via online submission with payment through PayPal. If you do not have a PayPal account you can use PayPal with a credit card or mail in a check.

The exhibition shows will be part of the PSA Conference this September in Spokane, Washington. Try your hand at exhibiting, support PSA and enter. It's a lot of fun.

Fall 2018 Inter-club Print Competition

Reported by Arthur S. Vaughan, HonNEC
NECCC Print Chairman

The fall 2018 inter-club print competition, hosted by the Flagpole Photographers Camera Club, was held on Thursday, November 1, 2018 at the Newtown Senior Center in Newtown, Connecticut. The judges for this competition were Maria Fuller, Laura Parisi, and Brad Stanton.

Maria Fuller is the founder and thought Leader behind RaisingAPowerfulGirl.com whose mission is to foster independence, leadership and strong personal identity in girls so they can change the world, and the recently launched Empowered Girl App for Clever Creative and Inquisitive Girls. A former critical care paramedic turned entrepreneur, Maria has spent more than 10 years helping women and girls shed unhealthy beliefs and smash through stereotypes and unhealthy behavior using photography to tell stories. Her work has been featured and published both nationally and internationally and she has been on Rachel Ray's television show for her work as well. A mother to two POWERFUL girls who challenge her and help guide her on life's journey, she lives with her high School sweetheart turned husband on a lazy river in Southbury Ct.

Laura Parisi is currently the co-vice president of North Haven Camera Club and their Judge Chairperson. She grew up in a photography studio and darkroom at home. Her dad has been a professional wedding and portrait photographer for as long as she can remember. She taught her first photography class to middle school students when she was about 16 years old, has taught home school children, and was involved in photographing small weddings, portraits and local town events. She is a past member of CT Professional Photographers of America and most recently travels nationally and internationally photographing beautiful scenery including Iceland and Italy. She has won many awards beginning in high school up to the present. She has given presentations including: How to see images from a judge's point of view, Portrait posing to make your subject look their best , Effective composition, How to effectively use filters and How and what to pack for an out of the country photo tour.

Brad Stanton began his career as a commercial photographer in 1977 in Bethel CT where he served advertising and commercial clients. He later moved to a large studio in Danbury Connecticut where he continued to work with clients in banking, home decor, industrial, as well as many well known artists. He continues to serve those clients today with digital photographic and digital printing services. In addition Brad has taught photography at both the University of Bridgeport and Western Connecticut State University.

The Flagpole members involved in helping with the competition included NECCC Club Rep Mark Ashbolt with Darcey O'Donoghue assisting with print handling. NECCC Print Competition Coordinator Sandy Schill and Rhonda Cullens, MNEC kept track of the scores. Chane Cullens modified the club's scoring system to accommodate the NECCC scoring range of 3-10 points per judge, and served as technical advisor for the electronic scoring of the prints. Club President Darrell Harrington and Sandy Schill assisted Mark Ashbolt in the preparation of the prints prior to the competition. The competition was well attended by Flagpole members and several photographers from another club who had prints in the competition.

Nineteen clubs participated in the Fall 2018 print competition, submitting a total of 147 prints... 48 in class "A" B&W, 24 in class "B" B&W, and 75 in the color division. Twelve clubs competed in class "A", six in class "B", and all nineteen clubs in color. A total of 21 prints received awards... 7 class "A", 5 class "B" and 9 in Color. Because of a 5 way tie for 1st place in class "B", based upon the number of prints submitted there are no other awards in that division. Clubs that entered less than their full allotment of four color and four B&W prints, or that missed the fall competition entirely, are encouraged to submit make-up prints along with their regular submissions for the winter competition, to be hosted by the Eastern Maine Camera Club in Bangor, Maine, on Thursday, January 31st.

The NECCC greatly appreciates the work and effort provided by the Flagpole Photographers Camera Club in serving as host club for this event, their first NECCC Interclub Print Competition host assignment. Special thanks go to their print competition crew, and their judges for providing the kind of support that allows the Council to continue to provide interclub print competition as the popular activity that it is for council member clubs.

Observations:

Fifteen of the nineteen participating clubs used the new online forms correctly and they worked very well. The remaining four clubs hand-wrote all or part of the information onto the forms. A number of prints were not mounted to the standards required for entry into print competition, but, as in past competitions, were "given a pass". Information will be sent out to all club reps responsible for sending in club entries explaining how having to deal with these two issues can create problems for the host club.

Winter 2019 Inter-club Print Competition
Arthur S. Vaughan, HonNEC
NECCC Print Chairman

The winter 2018-2019 Interclub Print Competition, hosted by the Eastern Maine Camera Club, was held on the evening of Thursday, January 31st, 2019 at the Bangor Parks & Recreation Department. The judges for this competition were Thomas Morelli, Don Powers, and Mike Taylor.

Thomas Morelli is the owner of Thomas Morelli Photography. He has been a professional portrait and wedding photographer for over 38 years in Central and Eastern Maine. In 2003 he was awarded Maine Photographer of the Year by the Professional Photographers Association. He has photographed over 15,000 children, babies, families, and high school seniors and done over 1,000 weddings since 1976.

Don Powers has been involved with photography for more than 30 years and continues to thoroughly enjoy the anticipation and rewards of this medium. In Maine he finds plenty of things to shoot from small fishing villages nestled along the coastline to the mountains and forests with miles of trails to explore.

Mike Taylor is the owner of Taylor Photography, a freelance imaging studio based in a 19th century farmhouse in central Maine. He is a landscape and studio photographer for over 20 combined years and counting. Taylor Photography's landscape astrophotography and scenic / nature images and articles have been featured on NASA's Astronomy Picture of the Day, Huffington Post, Outdoor Photography Magazine, The Weather Channel, NBC News, Viral Nova, Discovery.com, Mashable.com, Yahoo!News, Space.com, Earthsky.org, Spaceweather.com, Solarham.net, and multiple other science website and social media pages. Taylor Photography teaches Night Photography and Post-Processing Workshops.

The following EMCC members shared the work involved in running this event:

Jeanne Caron (print prepping and making sure prints were repacked in their proper boxes)

Elizabeth Payne (making sure prints were repacked in their proper boxes)

Joel Holcomb (computer scoring)

Liz Champeon (placing scores on back of prints)

Alice Frati (placing scores on scoring sheets, prepping prints, checking prints in boxes, packing prints, mailing boxes)

Julie Oreskovich (hand scoring sheets)

John Edwards (print number caller)

Larry Sherwood (loading prints into viewing box)

Diane Woodworth (running prints from the viewing box to the scoring table)

Twenty clubs participated in the competition, submitting a total of 162 prints... 48 in Class A B&W, 32 in Class B, and 82 in the Color division. A tighter than usual scoring spread resulted in there being 6 first place prints in Class A (no other awards), 4 in Class B (no other awards), and five in Color (no 2nd place award, but nine 3rd places).

NOTE!!! Participating clubs must pay close attention to the on-line submission instructions, and especially the guidelines (rules) dealing with what is, and IS NOT acceptable for a competition print! There were a number of issues with prints submitted by eleven of the twenty clubs (more than 50%) that made this competition the most difficult one Eastern Maine Camera Club has ever had to deal with, and the club has hosted a number of them. Thanks to a VERY detailed EMCC print report listing the various issues and the difficulty each presented, positive steps can be taken to ensure that they are resolved completely. Many thanks go out to the Eastern Maine Camera Club for hosting this event, the judges, and in particular... all the members of the competition crew who collectively did what was necessary to push this event "across the finish-line".

Results of the Winter 2019 competition and cumulative totals thus are:

Spring 2019 Inter-club Print Competition
Arthur S. Vaughan, HonNEC
NECCC Print Chairman

From the report provided by the Spring Interclub Print Competition coordinator Pat Benham:

The Spring 2018-2019 Interclub Print Competition, hosted by the Greater Bridgeport Camera Club, was held on the evening of Wednesday, March 6th, 2019 at the the First Congregational Church in Stratford, CT. The judges for this competition were Antoinette Gombeda, APSA, HonNEC, Roger Salls, and Harold Siegal.

Antoinette has been active in several photography groups over her many years as a talented photographer. She is a long-time member and past president of the Greater Bridgeport Camera Club; a member of the Photographic Society of America; and has been on the board of the New England Camera Club Council for many years. She has been co-chair of the NECCC Conference on numerous occasions, president for many terms, and is still active in several conference activities. She is also on the Board for CAP and co chairs the Tops In Ct for many years. She is a sought after competition judge who has shared her expertise and also graciously trained many others to take on a judge's role. Her long list of photographic accomplishments could surely fill a book!

Roger specializes in professional event and commercial photography at his studio in Stratford, Ct. His clients include such companies such as Subway, Aquarion Water Company, and Peoples Bank to name just a few. He is a member of the Professional Photographers of America, past member of Commercial Industrial Photographers of New England and a member of Bridgeport Regional Business Council.

Harold currently is in charge of Membership and the PSA rep for the Milford Camera Club and has held many positions in the past for that club.

The print competition was successful only due to the many members who were instrumental in making this event go so smoothly. They were Jim Santerre and Hazel Meredith who handled the scoring, Margi Montanaro, Joanne Maradaccio, Terri Smith and Zaida Parkes all helped setting up, organizing the prints for viewing and then helped boxing the prints along with the scores cards and getting them ready to be mailed back to the clubs.

Norm Solomon and Richard Kunsch handled the prints for the judges viewing, and both helped before and after in organizing and getting the prints ready to be returned. Kathie Powell also helped getting the prints ready to be returned.

Only 12 clubs entered this competition. A few of the prints had come loose in the transportation to GBCC and some of the forms were not filled out, but I feel like this was a really good experience for our club.

Pat

Twelve clubs participated in the Spring competition, submitting a total of 93 prints... 24 in Class A B&W, 23 in Class B, and 46 in the Color division. Because of the number of clubs that missed this competition, the last place finishing club in class A black & white will not drop down to class B for next season, and the first place club in Class B will not move up to Class A.

All prints receiving third place or higher in Interclub Print Competition are eligible to be entered in the NECCC Interclub Print of the Year Competition to be held at the Merrimack Valley Camera Club, Trinitarian Congregational Church, 72 Elm St. in North Andover on the evening of Wednesday May 22, 2019. A competition notice and a list of eligible prints will be distributed shortly. There are 52 eligible prints this season, which includes those from the spring competition, two more than last season. Makers should ship prints to the print competition director to arrive no later than May 21. Address information is taped to the tag on your 1st, 2nd, or 3rd place ribbon. If you plan to attend the competition you may bring your print (s) with you. Labels will be prepared in advance. Clubs having more than one eligible print are encouraged to ship them together as for an interclub print competition.

NECCC
Inter-club Print of the Year Competition
May 23, 2019
Arthur Vaughan, HonNEC

The NECCC Interclub Print of the Year competition for the 2018-2019 season was held on the evening of May 22nd at the Merrimack Valley Camera Club, 72 Church St, North Andover, MA. Of a total of 52 prints eligible for entry into the competition, 42 were submitted by their makers, a turnout of 81%. This is the sixth consecutive year that a level of at least 80% of print returns has been reached. In the past, when the Print of the Year Competition was held at the NECCC Conference, print submissions ran as low as 15%, with an average of 30% of eligible prints being returned for entry. Judges for this competition were Guy Lessard, Sarah Musumeci, and John Yurka.

Guy Lessard is a former President of the Manchester Artists Association, is a member of the New Hampshire Artists Association and is a certified member of the Professional Photographers of America. He has served as a judge at numerous camera club and NECCC competitions around the New England area.

Sarah Musumeci is an accomplished architectural and interior photographer, and has served as judge for local, regional, and international competitions and salons. She has presented numerous programs at many camera clubs, the NECCC and Photographic Society of America (PSA) Conferences, and has been a portfolio reviewer at the NECCC Conference for many years.

John Yurka is the former chairman of the George W. Glennie Nature Salon held every year at the Merrimack Valley Camera Club. He has served on numerous occasions as a digital or print competition judge. Since his film days he has been, and continues to be... a master craftsman in the art of photographic manipulation, photo montage, and creative imaging, producing images depicting situations that fly in the face of the laws of physics, evolution, and the "natural order of things".

Unlike with the interclub print competitions, class "A" and "B" monochrome were judged separately. Each division's prints were previewed completely before judging began. At the conclusion of the competition all the prints were laid out on tables for viewing, giving attendees an opportunity to fully appreciate their quality. Attendees were very appreciative of this post-competition viewing session and enjoyed the discussion brought about by closely examining and comparing the various entries.

A number of club members shared the various tasks involved in holding this event. Harold Roussel loaded prints into the viewing box and Malcolm Anderson removed them, writing the scores on the print labels. Mary Boucher and Laura Nunn entered scores onto spreadsheets, and Art Vaughan operated the scoring system, an older RMF unit generously loaned by the Greater Lynn Photographic Association.

There were no ties for Print of the Year in any division. Second place (runner-up) awards were assigned to those prints that might possibly have won Print of the Year if the top award winner in each division had not been entered.

Print of the Year 2018-2019:

B&W class A, 29 pts: "Jenna", by Don Powers, Eastern Maine Camera Club

B&W class B, 28 pts: "The Observer", by Joshua Goldin, Milford Camera Club

Color, 30 pts: "Night Fishing", by David Long, Boston Camera Club

Runner-up class A:

2nd place, 25 pts: "6:44, Stars Shining Bright Above Me", by Larry Dunn, Greater Lynn Phot. Assoc.

2nd place, 25 pts: "Contemplation", by Debbie Mattia, Stony Brook Camera Club

Runner-up class B:

2nd place, 25 pts: "Points for the Bull", by Loretta Paul-Goldin, Milford Camera Club

2nd place, 25 pts: "Soldier in the Bunker", by Joyce Doty, Springfield Photographic Society

2nd place, 25 pts: "The Abbey", by Judy St. Pierre, Whaling City Camera Club

2nd place, 25 pts: "Winter at the Boardwalk", by Rich Coyle, Milford Camera Club

Runner-up Color:

2nd place, 28 pts: "Hot at Work", by John Tabaczynski, Nashoba Valley Photo Club

The Print of the Year in each division will become part of the "Best of the NECCC" Print Program for the 2019-2020 season, and will be displayed in the print room (1st floor exhibition hall, Old Chapel), at the NECCC conference along with the winning prints from the 2019 Conference Print Competition. Award plaques for Print of the year will be presented at the conference awards ceremony to be held on Sunday morning, July 14, at 11:30 AM in the Campus Center, Room 904-08. Clubs that did not request return shipping of prints may pick up their Print of the Year entries in the print room at the Conference.

NEW ENGLAND CAMERA CLUB COUNCIL, INCORPORATED

NECCC Spring 2019 Electronic Interclub Competition

The NECCC Spring 2019 competition was hosted by The Seacoast Camera Club, and was held on April 09, 2019 in Portsmouth, NH. The competition was directed by Susan Hershey, NECCC representative for The Seacoast Camera Club. Assistance during the competition was provided by Sandy McMillan, Lisa Tutinas, Renee Giffroy, Shirley Reed, Pat Kennedy Corlin, Deb Boulanger and Karen Harter.

Forty clubs participated in the Pictorial section (22 from Class A and 18 from Class B) and thirty nine clubs participated in the Nature section (17 from Class A and 22 from Class B). Thanks are extended to The Seacoast Camera Club for hosting this final competition of the 2018-19 season.

The competition was judged by:

- Ed McGuirk – Sudbury Valley Nature Photographers and The Massachusetts Camera Naturalists
- Sandy Selesky – Print Coordinator at the Nashoba Valley Photography Club
- Art Vaughan – NECCC Vice President and NECCC Print Competition Director

The winning clubs in the Pictorial section Class A were:

Club	Score	Place
Greater Lynn	100	1st
Nashoba Valley	96	2nd
Flagpole	95	3rd

The winning clubs in the Pictorial section Class B were:

Club	Score	Place
Seacoast	93	1st
Quiet Corner	91	2nd
Seven Hills	90	3rd
Canton	90	3rd

The winning clubs in the Nature section Class A were:

Club	Score	Place
Greater Lynn	105	1st
Nashoba Valley	96	2nd

The winning clubs in the Nature section Class B were:

Club	Score	Place
Manchester	95	1st
Upper Cape	94	2nd
Cape Cod Art Center	93	3rd
South Eastern CT	93	3rd

End of Year Standings

The overall winning clubs in the four divisions for this competition season are as follows:

Pictorial Class A:

Club Name	Total Score	Place
Greater Lynn	287	1st
Nashoba Valley	277	2nd
Flagpole	273	3rd

Pictorial Class B:

Club Name	Total Score	Place
Seacoast	260	1st
Seven Hills	260	1st
North Haven	259	3rd

Nature Class A:

Club Name	Total Score	Place

Nature Class B:

Club Name	Total Score	Place
Manchester	269	1st
Westfield	267	2nd
Upper Cape	266	3rd

The THREE 1st place clubs in Class B will now move up to Class A starting in the 2019-2020 season. Therefore, Seacoast and Seven Hills will now compete in Pictorial Class A and Manchester will compete in Nature Class A.

Winning images (1st, 2nd and 3rd places) from the three competitions this season will be sent to a judge outside of New England who will pick the Pictorial Class A, Pictorial Class B, Nature Class A, and Nature Class B photographs of the year. Winners need not re-submit images as the competition chairmen have the images and will arrange the judging. The awards will be given at the awards ceremony on Sunday morning at the annual NECCC Conference in Amherst. The first place club awards will also be presented at the same time. We hope to see all of you there.

Congratulations to this season's FIVE first place winning clubs and to all the winners.

Next Competition Season (2019-2020)

Thanks are extended to all those entrants, judges, clubs, etc. that made this competition season a success. The success of the competitions is not possible without all of you. Host clubs for next season's competition are being finalized. The host clubs, and dates for competition for the 2019-20 season, will be announced shortly.

A flyer containing a summary of any changes, as well as a list of next season's competition dates and closing dates will be sent to the club reps of this year's competitors and will be included in the annual Club Information Packets. Documents containing complete rules and instructions will be posted on the Interclub Competition page of the NECCC Internet site and will also be sent to all of the competition representatives as soon as they are available.

"Ocean State International Exhibition Show Photographic Society of Rhode Island"
by Dennis Goulet, HonNEC
Sunday, June 9, 2:00 PM

After a 2 year break The Photographic Society of Rhode Island held their International Exhibition competition again and we will have the first showing of the accepted images at GLPA. This beautiful showcase will be a wonderful arrangement of images set to music with every photographic subject known to photographers worldwide including portraits, landscapes, sports, creative, still life's, photo-journalism and everything In between.

The exhibition was judged April 20, 2019 in Rhode Island and 37 Greater Lynn Members entered. For those of you who were lucky enough to score 12 points or more with your image or images, they are now considered accepted and will be a part of the show. The judging panel consisted of Dan Charbonnet, HonPSA, EPSA, MNEC of Greater Lynn, Ed McGuirk and Mike DiStefano, APSA, HonNEC of the Photographic Society of Rhode Island.

The exhibition had 264 entrants from 17 countries and 19 states including the USA, for a total of 1049 images. They also accepted slides for the competition but I do not have a breakdown on how many slide entries they received. They gave a medal for best club and had 15 clubs competing. Greater Lynn tied for first place with Gateway Camera Club of Framingham, Ma with 84 points; Nashoba Valley of Westford, MA came in second with 79 points; and third place was also a tie with 78 points between Seacoast, Portsmouth, MA and Stony Brook, Wrentham, MA.

The show, assembled by PSRI member and showcase presenter Dennis Goulet, HonNEC will last about 45 minutes and is open to the public so invite your friends and families. Please join us. If you were lucky enough to receive an acceptance come and see it in this magical showcase of photography.

Catalog of winning images may be found here: <http://www.psri.us/psricms/wp-content/uploads/2019/05/2019-OSI-Catalog-with-Images-PDF-v20.pdf>

Message from the Chair

The OSI Photography Exhibition is back after a lapse of three years. It was very heartening to receive emails expressing gratitude for its resurrection.

There were 1049 outstanding images that made life difficult for our esteemed judges, Dan Charbonnet, FPSA, EPSA, MNEC; Mike Di Stefano, APSA, HonNEC; and Ed McGuirk.

So why did I undertake this challenge? It has provided me with a sense of fulfillment – an opportunity to see what photographers around the world are up to, thereby broadening my knowledge and helping me to grow as a photographer.

This is a non-profit exhibition. All proceeds will be utilized for promoting photography. I am happy to entertain any joint venture with the Photographic Society of Rhode Island.

I am deeply grateful to my OSI team comprising of Sue Babin; Mike Di Stefano, APSA, HonNEC; Dennis Goulet, HonNEC; Tara Marshall; Karen Johnson-Nieuwendijk; and Deb Page. Countless hours have been spent but the fruits of their labor are obvious.

Looking forward to another successful salon in 2020!

Karl M Zuzarte, M.D.
