To E-mail the Application Form (see link at bottom) to Gordon Yu:

Fill out the form fields shaded in blue - required fields are outlined in red. Use the tab key to go from field to field. When you have finished entering your data and double-checking it, please click on to the submit button in the upper right corner of the form. A pop-up will ask if you have a regular e-mail account (using Outlook or similar) or if you use internet e-mail like Gmail or Yahoo or similar. The Submit button will be disabled until all mandatory fields are filled. This will e-mail the form to Gordon.

NOTE: If you use Google's Chrome browser or Firefox, the form will not work. It will work on Internet Explorer and Safari.

* Attention: Some have emailed that the application form is not working for them this year. I (the webmaster) have been researching this and trying out many things that are not working for everyone. I've added a "Print" button (Firefox isn't displaying the buttons), so that in the worst case, you can fill it in, print it out, and send to Gordon by regular mail (or fill it out, do a Print Screen, paste into a document [like Word], and email the document). Not a high-tech solution, but until this gets fixed, you can still get your application to him (his mailing address is above).
